Cultural Awareness Program
Wednesday 16 July 2014, 9.30 am – 4.30pm
Boardroom 1, Level 2, Koorie Heritage Trust
295 King Street, Melbourne 3000
Facilitator Karen Milward

This program is designed for government bodies, community sector and corporate organisations. It provides participants with practical understanding for working with Indigenous communities.

The program is a foundation program intended to provide participants who may not have had any previous training or exposure to Aboriginal people, with an overview of the building blocks of Aboriginal Identity and culture by taking them through the history of Aboriginal pre and post settlement culture and contact (including government legislation and policies) and how this informs contemporary Aboriginal culture.

The general outline of the day is as follow:

- Womin je ka – Welcome and introductions
 - Brief Introductions
 - Learning objectives
 - Overview of participants' organisation Indigenous issues/policy position (optional)
- The Building Blocks of Identity
 - Aboriginality
 - Definitions
- The Building Blocks of Aboriginal Identity – Pre-Colonisation
 - Aboriginal identity
 - Language Groups
 - Relationship to the Land
 - Dreaming
 - Lore
- The Building Blocks of Aboriginal Identity – Post Colonisation
 - Impact of Law
 - Major Government Legislation and Policies
 - Missions and Reserves
- The Building Blocks of Aboriginal Identity – The Aboriginal Community Today
 - Statistical snapshot
 - Aboriginality vs Urbanisation
 - Aboriginality within contemporary society
 - Population trends
 - Overview of Aboriginal community structure
